

Individual lymph-node metastasis maps show retained tumor coupling with heterogeneous immune organization

Rows show all five GSE272362 lymph-node metastasis samples, ordered by immune-decoupling index. Red rings mark top 10% CAF-myeloid spots; black rings in program maps mark the same CAF core. Deltas are observed distance-to-core Spearman rho minus same-size random-core median, where negative values indicate stronger CAF-core centering.